

Associate members

Benefits

- Receive summary industry on semi-annual basis in the form of a newsletter addressing subjects such as worldwide regulatory developments, data, ingredient use forecast and trends, (with option to buy full report)
- Endorsement of membership, including use of ISC logo for associate members and ability to describe yourself as an “associate member of ISC”
- Ability to submit questions/proposals/issues to ISC Board and Committees for consideration
- Participate in annual survey on data gathering
- Participation in webinars with the ISC Working Committees and Stakeholders Committees to receive updated information on activities and latest developments
- Discounted price to participate in the Stevia Proficiency Testing Program
- Access to the intranet of the ISC website sections dedicated to associate members
- Access to ISC members through contact list and Attendance at the Annual General Assembly

Associate members do not have the right to participate in ISC committee meetings.

Yearly Membership Dues:

- Stevia Stakeholders: USD 5,000 per year.
Individuals, companies or organisations with an interest in the stevia value chain, including distributors of stevia extracts, NGOs, consumer and regulatory bodies, academia and universities
- Leaf Suppliers: USD 2,000 per year.
Individual stevia leaf growers may choose to be an Associate member and receive information about the industry.

Please find attached the Value Proposition and the Subscription Form.